Re: FOIA 14-639

Dear Ms. Stillman:

I am responding to your request dated September 26, under the Illinois Freedom of Information Act in which you request:

“Any and all records related to any training(s), consultation(s), presentation(s), or other services of any nature whatsoever performed for the university by Barbara T. Doyle, M.S., including, but not limited to program brochures or other information, training documents, outlines, power points, handouts and other materials, consultation proposals and/or reports, e-mail and other communications, job descriptions, curriculum vitae, announcements, advertisement, invoices, and payments.”

Information responsive to your request is available and attached. These are public documents numbering 55 pages.

Portions of these documents have been redacted and other documents are being withheld pursuant to the following section(s) of the Act:

- 140/7(1)(b) that exempts from disclosure “Private information, unless disclosure is required by another provision of this Act, a State or federal law or a court order.” This includes signatures, social security numbers and taxpayer identification numbers.
- 140/7(1)(f) that exempts from disclosure “Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, memoranda and other records in which opinions are expressed, or policies or actions are formulated, except that a specific record or relevant portion of a record shall not be exempt when the record is publicly cited and identified by the head of the public body.” This includes documents containing handwritten notes, opinions, proposed actions, recommendations and drafts.

Should you wish to inspect or receive a physical copy of these documents, please call Melanie Kuehn at the phone number below and she will provide you with all necessary details.

You have a right, under the law, to seek a review of this response by the Public Access Counselor (PAC) in the Office of the Attorney General. The PAC may be reached by phone at 217-782-1396, by email to publicaccess@atg.state.il.us, or by postal mail at the Public Access Bureau, 500 S. 2nd Street, Springfield, Illinois 62706. You also have the right to seek judicial review under section 11 of this Act.

If you have questions for our office, please contact 217-333-6400.

Sincerely,

Thomas P. Hardy
Executive Director and Chief Records Officer
