Re: FOIA 15-164

Dear Ms. Gordon:

I write to respond to your Freedom of Information request received in my office on March 2, 2015, in which you requested:

“all of the responses to an RFP for Worker's Compensation Claims Management system awarded in December 2013. Origami Risk won the contract.”

Information responsive to your request is available and attached. These are public documents numbering 567 pages.

Portions of these documents have been redacted pursuant to the following section(s) of the Act:

- 140/7(1)(b) that exempts from disclosure “Private information, unless disclosure is required by another provision of this Act, a State or federal law or a court order.” This includes TIN, FEIN, and home addresses.
- 140/7(1)(c) that exempts from disclosure “Personal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which, if disclosed, would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless the disclosure is consented to in writing by the individual subjects of the information.” Pursuant to this exemption, professional references, personal education information and employment history for staff were redacted from the responsive records.
- 140/7(f) that exempts “preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, memoranda and other records in which opinions are expressed, or policies or actions are formulated, except that a specific record or relevant portion of a record shall not be exempt when the record is publicly cited and identified by the head of the public body.” This includes draft documents and sample contracts.
- 140/7(1)(g) that exempts from disclosure “Trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person or business where the trade secrets or commercial or financial information are furnished under a claim that they are proprietary, privileged
